Intelligence powers success

How to mitigate business risks and threats

To mitigate business risks and defend against threats, a company must understand its adversaries and environment in detail while at the same time preventing others from learning about its own intentions and capabilities. This creates a strategic intelligence gap and provides you with a significant and sustainable strategic advantage.

Our unique portfolio of intelligence services

Voice of the Customers

„Udo is a very customer-oriented business partner. He goes the extra mile to get the job done and to serve his clients. Udo helped my teams by bringing a strong outside market understanding to our existing knowledge, and he enriched our analysis and recommendations with his expertise. I'm looking forward to upcoming projects together with INFO + DATEN. High quality combined with high reliability is a great selling proposition for Udo and his company." (Fortune 1000 company in the IT industry)

„What makes all the difference when it comes down to intelligence performance? A global understanding of the real core intelligence procedure, a comprehensive skill set, proven first-hand experience, an international network, and last but not least a forceful personality. Indeed, this is my subjective view - but simply put: Udo is all that." (International medium-sized company in Manufacturing)

„I have worked with Udo and INFO + DATEN for several years now. My experience has been extremely positive; Udo and his company have provided high quality work across the board, something which is rare to find. Udo is honest, reliable and very results-oriented." (Fortune 1000 company in the High Tech arena)
